

Final Examination Schedule – Fall 2020

The Final Exam period for Fall 2020 will take place November 23-25 after students have left campus for the Fall semester.

Final Examinations will be scheduled in the format selected by instructors and announced in the syllabus for each course. In the event that a final exam involves a timed and synchronous test or activity, class periods will use the following times. Students should keep these time periods scheduled for this purpose until an instructor announces alternative plans.

Lab courses and courses that meet one time each week may have exams in the final scheduled class meeting time.
